About Australian Deer Magazine

Now in its fifty-third year, Australian Deer is Australasia's premier deer hunting and management publication and is renowned for its market leading production and editing qualities. Australian Deer is posted directly to all members of the Australian Deer Association, Australia's largest deer hunting organisation and is also distributed via newsagents nationwide.

Australian Deer offers advertisers the unique opportunity to reach a targeted market of passionate and informed deer hunters whilst associating with recognisable and trusted brands in the Australian hunting scene.

In addition to world class photography, reviews, educational articles and adventure hunting stories; Australian Deer also leverages its unique position to provide unrivalled insights in to the management, environmental, philosophical and political aspects of deer and hunting.

Advertisers in Australian Deer also access exclusive marketing opportunities through the Australian Deer Association's website, social media channels, major events and exhibitions and branch network.
